Pianist to appear as part of community concert series

The Community Concert Association of Scranton presents, as its third event of their five-part 1983-84 concert season, the gifted talents of Horacio Gutierrez, appearing at the Masonic Temple in Scranton on Thursday, December 8.

One of the most highly acclaimed pianists of his generation, his career is marked by continuing collaboration with many eminent international conductors including Dmitri Mitropoulos, Mehta, Previn, Leinsdorf, Conlon, Livine, Comissiona, Andrew Davis and Mata. His performances with the major orchestras of London, Paris, and the Berlin Philharmonic as well as the orchestras of Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Montreal, Detroit and Washington, D.C highlight his professional career. As a recitalist he has appeared on the most prestigious stages in the United States, Canada, Europe, South America, Isreal and Japan.

The Scranton Community Concert Association has brought to its members most of the outstanding artists of our time. The balance of the current concert season includes The Black Light Theater of Prague on February 22, 1984, and The Empire Brass Quintet on April 25, 1984. Adjusted season memberships are still available by phoning Esther Singer, The Pike St., or 1-342-8687, or writing to the Concert Office, Room 102, Chamber of Commerce Building, Scranton, Pa., 18503. All concerts are held at the Masonic Temple in Scranton and begin at 8 p.m.

Society schedules annual dinner

The annual dinner meeting of the Carbondale Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, December 20, at Andrews Banquet Hall, 48 Gordon Avenue. Members who are planning to attend are asked to make reservations with Howard Yepson (282-5151) before December 16.

At the meeting, annual reports will be presented by the Society's president, S. Robert Powell, and by the Society's treasurer, Howard Yepson. In addition, awards will be presented to Mason East and John Klimkiewicz for the two videotapes that they created for the Society during the summer of 1983. One videotape is a 20-minute documentary on Carbondale City Hall and Courthouse; the other is a 45-minute summary statement of the accomplishments of the Historical Society in the period from November 1981 to August 1983.
